

Congregational Care –Ministry Assistant –needed full time. Must have a high proficiency in computer usage, not only edit and report but also to create publications. Applicant must possess excellent verbal communication skills as well as the ability to handle confidential materials. A self starter with high organizational skills is a must. Job description dictates the need for a person who can move from a variety of different task and can overcome interruptions and still display a prayerful and compassionate response to our church family. Please sent resume and references to Rev. Dennis Daniels Pastoral Care Pastor, 431 North State Street, Jackson, MS. 39201.