

Book reviews for June 2008

Someone Once Said – the Preaching Ministry of Frank Pollard – 21 inspiration sermons are filled with gripping stories and makes scripture come alive for the reader and hearer. You will enjoy the illustrated sermons, laugh, cry and sit on the edge of your seat as you read these Bible messages. (Pol) New

Praying Paul's Letters by Elmer Towns – The author sets the scenes in Corinth, Rome and Athens where Paul wrote his Holy Spirit-inspired letters to churches, friends, and you. Your life will be transformed with you pray from your heart the letters that the apostle Paul wrote for us so long ago. (Tow) New

Grover Cleveland by Henry Graff – This author discovers what it would be like to have a president without charisma, who active with principle and probity according to his conscience and engrave his name on a formative period in presidential history. (Cle) New

American Heroes by Oliver North – This book with its moving words and powerful images will inspire patriots, reassure the faint of heart and infuriate our nation's adversaries. These are heroes that deserve to have their story told. (Nor) New

Christ the Lord – Out of Egypt by Anne Rice – A riveting, reverent imaging of the hidden years of the child Jesus. It presents Jesus as nature mystery, healer, prophet and very much a real young boy. (Ric) New

Christ the Lord – The Road to Cana by Anne Rice – Jesus is created as a recognizably human – but without sin. This story is based on the Gospels in which the authors summons up the presence of Jesus. (Ric) New

Dawn's Light by Terri Blackstock – In this final book of the Restoration Series, the end of global blackout signals the beginning of the Branning family's test of faith. This what-if series reveals the darkness in human hearts-and lights the way to restoration for a self-centered world. (Bla) New

Always Grace by Tim LaHaye and Gregory Dinallo – This is story is weaved a with harrowing, moving epic of soul mates separated by fate and circumstance, where true love is never really lost – if hope and faith remain. (LaH) New

Healing Stones by Nancy Rue - with one flash of a camera, Demi's private life becomes public news which begins her healing. This series is about pain, healing, and God's invitation for second chances. (Rue) New

The forbidden by Beverly Lewis – An unforgettable tale set during a landmark era in Pennsylvania Amish country. The characters struggle to cope with grief and questions about their traditions and relationship with God. (Lew) New

Walking with God by John Eldredge – this is a series of stories of what it looks like to walk with God. Intimacy with God is the purpose of our lives, this author looks at the Christian’s path to the life we were created to live. (248.4) New

The Yellow Rose Trilogy by Lori Wick – Three full-length novels of romance, history and Texas justice in the 1880s. The characters encounter enough complications in their lives and journeys of faith until the unpredictable resolutions of this entertaining and heartwarming historical romance trilogy. (Wic) New

Amber Morn by Brandilyn Collins – The action starts with a bang, with an attempt on Carla’s life, and the pace doesn’t let up until the story crosses the finish line. The author crafts an unparalleled cat-and-mouse game wrought with mystery and surprise. (Col) New

When the Cat’s Away by Gilbert Morris – Book 3 in the Jacques & Cleo, Cat Detectives mystery series takes place in White Sands. A “best of show” cat is catnapped and Jake pursues catnappers with the crime-busing tomcat, Jacques the Ripper. (Mor) New

Doesn’t She Look Natural by Angela Hunt – How do you live with God asks you to bury a dream? Jennifer inherits a funeral home and uncovers the mysteries of love and life within a mortuary. (Hun) New