Benefiting Mission First

The proceeds from this race will go to benefit Mission First, Inc. This non-profit organization operates the West Park Community Ministry Center which hosts a Legal Aid Office and a Medical/Dental Clinic. The multipurpose building houses health and fitness programs which provide wellness benefits to the residents of the area. Mission First also provides after school programs for children and youth which include tutoring, mentoring, sports teams, music, art, and drama. Along with these services and programs, there is an Emergency Response Team which responds to the needs of the community and the Jackson Metro area when disaster assistance is needed. For more information, call 601-714-6900 or visit www.missionfirst.org.
